

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OPENING TWO MONTHS AHEAD OF SCHEDULE, SIN CITY'S NEWEST INDULGENCE IS THE RENAISSANCE LAS VEGAS HOTEL

LAS VEGAS (December 3, 2004) – The Renaissance Las Vegas Hotel announced today its opening, two months ahead of schedule. Surrounded by the glitz and glamour of the Strip and edged by the natural wonders of the Mojave Desert beyond, the Renaissance Las Vegas Hotel is in a prime location adjacent to the Las Vegas Convention Center. The hotel is constructed by Perini Building Company – renowned builders of some of the most luxurious hotels and resorts in the world, including Trump Taj Mahal and Paris Casino Resort. Rates range between $139 and $209.

“We are that much closer to becoming a landmark in Las Vegas,” said Larry Brown, general manager of Renaissance Las Vegas Hotel. “With our premier Paradise Road location next to the Las Vegas Convention Center, we are thrilled to be opening much earlier than we anticipated.”

Slated as the largest non-gaming hotel in Nevada, the Renaissance Las Vegas Hotel offers travelers access to 14 stories of spacious accommodations, including 548 rooms and 30 suites ranging from 859 to 1,681 sq. ft. Exclusive guest amenities include spa treatments, a chic restaurant and bar, high-speed Internet access, flat screen televisions and a dedicated concierge service that grants guests their every whim.

Appealing to the discerning business traveler, the Renaissance Las Vegas Hotel boasts more than 32,000 sq. ft. of function space. All meeting rooms feature flexible floor plans, WiFi technology, ergonomic chairs and superior audiovisual capabilities. Highly skilled conference coordinators ensure that events run without a hitch, while onsite catering guarantees meeting attendees get their fill.

Poised alongside the provocative pulse of Sin City, the Renaissance Las Vegas Hotel keeps guests close to the action without the noise and distractions. For a roll of the dice or the clang of the slot machines, guests can saunter to the newly engineered Las Vegas Monorail, which glides along the Strip, stopping at seven casinos.

The Renaissance Las Vegas Hotel provides guests effortless access to the heart of Sin City while earning valuable Marriott Rewards points. The hotel is located at 3400 Paradise Road and can be reached by phone at (702) 733-6533 or toll free at (866) 352-3434. Fax: (702) 735-3130. Renaissance Las Vegas Hotel is the newest development project of the Jackson-Shaw company of Dallas and can be visited on the Web at <http://www.renaissancelasvegas.com/>.
